If it takes 10,000 hours to master a craft...

There's a theory out there that says it takes roughly 10,000 hours to become a master of one's craft. At least that's what some studies have found when it comes to playing a violin.

When you do the math that's the equivalent of just about five years of steady work in one's area of expertise.

So if that's the case, what level of craftsmanship would you consider Kirk Westberg to have achieved when it comes to building quality high-performance engines after spending 35 years in the business?

Kirk has never quit learning those new tricks that will keep your ride or race car going strong.

To get the rest of the story visit the Westberg Advanced Engines on Facebook and find out about this virtuoso of valves, pistons and everything else under the hood.

Raymond Beadle passes away

Dallas — Raymond Beadle, a former three-time NHRA Funny Car world champion who was voted No. 20 on NHRA's Top 50 racers list in 2001, died Oct. 20 at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas. He was 70.

Beadle assured his status as a racing immortal when he ended the four-year championship reign of Don Prudhomme, winning the title in 1979, then added crowns in 1980 and 1981 with his vaunted Blue Max entries.

Retired from driving since 1987, he has been an owner since 1990. Beadle had dabbled in cattle and quarter horses but recently had moved back to Dallas with his wife, Roz.

Beadle was inducted earlier this year into the Motorsports Hall of Fame of America in Detroit.

Yep...when WE work for YOU it DOES produce results!

Spirit Lake's big fund-raising event, the Big Backin mower race, needed a little good PR.

They contacted us. And we delivered. When those crazy road racing Chump Cars looked to get noticed over a busy July 4th Weekend in Spokane, well there was only one place they turned. Chump Cars had two in depth stories on their marathon 36-hour race. And as Spokane County Raceway battled to get the correct information out to a media that just LOVES to only tell part of the story.

Guess who? Motorsports in our region has many GREAT stories to tell, but truth be told, few, if any media people will ever know unless you ask.

It's not that they don't care — they're all looking for that potential Emmy-Award winner. They are just all too consumed with the old traditional stories.

That's where NWMotorsports News Services fits in to provide you with a wide array of promotional services.

We'll admit we find it hard to do even the most routine automotive maintenance — let alone rebuild a motor or fix body damage — but we DO KNOW what it takes to try to get you ink in your local paper, or video at 11 p.m.

- News releases • Feature stories
  - Professional photography
  - Web pages • Media kits
  - Eye-catching sponsor and marketing proposals and more!
- (Pricing starts about the cost of a full tank of gas)

"After spending the last 10-plus years sending out our own press release with little response by the media you've single handedly turned that around."
Marc Kroetch
Big Backin

"You're our Chump Car guardian angel. Looks like we may have the morning show reporter for KXLY TV come out."
